Terms and Conditions

1. All entries must be submitted online and must be received by midnight on Sunday 8th March 2026.

2. No liability for entries lost or delayed in transmission will be accepted.

3. Confirmation of receipt of your online application will be sent by email immediately after you submit your application. If you do not receive this confirmation, please contact DASLS on 01392 366333.

4. All entrants must be over the age of 18 and represent a business that is a current member of the Devon & Somerset Law Society.

5. The business can be a sole trader, a private or public limited company, a partnership or limited liability partnership, a business unit within a company.

6. There are no restrictions to the number of categories you may enter.

7. Third parties can make applications on behalf of businesses or individuals, providing the business or person nominated is aware of the entry and has corroborated the content in the application form.

8. The organisers cannot be responsible for any failure in confidentiality, so applicants must ensure confidential aspects are protected before submission.

9. The organisers reserve the right to publicise the results of the competition and use winning entries in press releases and published case histories.

10. It is a condition of entry that participants will co-operate with the media. Winners may and are actively encouraged to refer to the competition in their own publicity material following approval by the organisers of such material.

11. All entrants must declare whether they, or the business they represent, are/could be involved in any dispute or judgement that could in any way significantly interfere with the proper conduct or reputation of the organisers of the Devon and Somerset Law Society Awards 2026.

12. The judges reserve the right to move applicants from one category to another if they believe it to be appropriate.

13. The organisers reserve the right to change the judging deadlines should circumstances necessitate.

14. There can be no appeal against the decisions of the judges and no correspondence will be undertaken.
